In June 2017, the Wisconsin Conference UCC voted to become an Immigrant Welcoming Conference. To live out this declaration, it is important for our congregations engage in study and conversation to strive to understand the issues around immigration justice. When we have a deeper understanding of the issues facing our immigrant neighbors, we are better able to live out our calling as Christians to care for these neighbors.

Salem UCC in Verona invites you to join them in learning more about these issues by attending their BUILDING BRIDGES event on Sunday, January 12th, or visiting the Building Bridges exhibit during the time it is open at Salem UCC. This is a wonderful opportunity to learn more about this issue and to connect with other congregations around immigration justice. Keep reading below to learn more.

I hope to see you on January 12th!

Blessings, Lisa Hart

Hello,

I am planning a community event at Salem UCC, Verona, to raise awareness for the experiences of immigrants and refugees in our nation and local community. I have partnered with an organization called Family Diversity Projects to host their photo and text exhibit titled "Building Bridges: Portraits of Immigrants and Refugees." Our church will host the exhibit for three weeks and it will be free and open to the public. Although our church is sponsoring this event, we intend the exhibit to be an informational event for the entire community regardless of religious affiliation.

To launch the opening of the exhibit, we are hosting an evening reception event on January 12 from 6:30-9:00pm at Salem UCC in Verona. As part of this exhibit opening, members of Plymouth UCC, Madison, will present their mission immersion experiences at the U.S./Mexico border. Other local organizations who support immigrants and refugees will join us on Jan. 12 to share their mission and work. I want to connect the community with these organizations to provide them opportunities to become involved.

I am contacting all of the UCC churches in the Southwest and Southeast Associations of the Wisconsin Conference to invite your congregation to join us on Jan. 12 for the exhibit opening, reception, and border presentation. The exhibit will remain at Salem UCC from January 13 through February 6 and can be viewed by individuals and groups during open hours (see flyer) or by appointment.

Youth and youth groups are invited to attend the program on January 12. Our youth group will also be gathering at the exhibit on Feb. 2, 4-5:30pm, to engage in a special program and conversation regarding immigration. We invite your youth to join us! Please contact our Director of Youth Ministry Janet Dahl if you have youth who would like to attend this gathering.

I have included an informational flyer to provide you with more information. Feel free to print or share this flier to generate support for this event. I am truly hoping that we can raise awareness for the needs of people who find themselves relocated to our community.

Blessings, Sarah Pundt

A Word About the Prelude...

From Sunday, January 5, 2020: an introduction to prelude was shared.....

"I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" is a Christmas carol based on a poem written by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow on Christmas Day, 1864. The song tells of the narrator's despair over personal tragedies, and the American Civil War.

In spite of the mention of bells and Christmas in the title, "I Heard the Bells on Christmas Day" is as much an anti-war song as it is a pro-Christmas song. The carol concludes with bells carrying renewed hope for peace on earth.

"I heard the bells on Christmas Day
Their old familiar carols play
And wild and sweet the words repeat
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

I thought how, as the day had come,
The belfries of all Christendom
Had rolled along the unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good will to men.

And in despair I bowed my head"
"There is no peace on earth, " I said,
"For hate is strong and mocks the song
Of peace on earth, good will to men."

Then pealed the bells more loud and deep:
"God is not dead, nor doth he sleep;
The wrong shall fail, the right prevail
With peace on earth, goodwill to men."

Till ringing, singing on its way
The world revolved from night to day,
A voice, a chime, a chant sublime
Of peace on earth, good will to men!"

Tune: Waltham; John Baptiste Calkin

From Heidi & Jeff Pauli to Royal's godfather Andy Anderson and godmother Sabrina Anderson:

To Royal from Andy:

"Royal, I am honored and feel overwhelmingly blessed to be a part of your special day. Today marks the beginning of a journey all of us are extremely excited for you to take. A journey of purpose, passion, love and most importantly...faith. You have already blessed us more than you can imagine. God is so good. I promise to always be there not only as your godparent and 'fundle' (fun uncle), but as a friend and someone you can look up to.
