Dear Church Family Members and Friends,

As we begin a New Year and as many of us are taking this opportunity to examine our lives and to re-focus our priorities, I am appreciative of the insights shared by Richard A. Wing in Deep Joy for a Shallow World in which he observes that lifestyle and creative use of leisure can be more important than diet and exercise in preventing heart attacks. I would suggest that a balance among all three is most desirable, but it is significant to note the importance of leisure, rest, re-creation and Sabbath time for our well being. This is not only for our physical health, but for spiritual and emotional balance as well. Is the pace of your world in this pandemic so fast that life seems to be spinning out of control? There are things you can choose to do about that. I pray that we all will reflect on where we can find our balance.

This book was written in the 1990's, long before the COVID pandemic, but it is a valuable tool for us to deal with the shallow world of 2022.

One of the suggestions in Richard Wing's book is that we can learn to live less frantic lives by living more by the calendar than the clock. Think about it for a moment. We live in a culture that reveres "multi-tasking" as something to be admired. And yet, we can't understand why we are so tired all the time. Doing several things at the same time usually means that we do few things well, and we are always feeling behind. We are pressured to follow the masking and spatial distancing rules that are very important for the safety of our family and our community, but truthfully they also add to our daily stress and worries.

Here are some possibilities for you to consider:

1. Stop thinking about several things at one time. When our attention is divided, the best we can accomplish is confusion.
2. Listen without interrupting. Active listening gives full attention to the other person. It's amazing what communication can occur when we actually hear what the other is saying.
3. Read books and magazines that demand concentration (games, too).
4. Plan for some personal quiet time every day. For me that time is when I awake. I make time for prayer, Bible study and meditation. I intentionally think through and plan my day in ways that empower me to be my best.
5. Finally, acknowledge and affirm that things worth "being" are much more important than things worth "doing" or "having". It is only when our human "being" is well grounded, that we can succeed in "having" a life that is meaningful, successful, faithful and healthy. Now that sounds like a meaningful New Year's Resolution. Will you join me?

From Your Moderator, Dale Bakke

December 12th, Congregational Budget Meeting

The meeting was called to order shortly after 11 am with participants attending in person in our sanctuary as well as online. A quorum was confirmed to be present for the meeting. Jennifer Bakke provided a brief update on the Profile Creation Committee and our Congregational Covenant was read in unison.

The first motion to accept members in good standing to participate and vote either in person or via Zoom for this one meeting was approved after a motion from Linda Eicher and a second from Jennifer Rhodes.

The next four motions were read. They included

- (1) a motion to suspend term limits on committees in Article VII of our Constitution for the 2022 calendar year.
- (2) a motion to suspend all boards as defined in Article VII of our Constitution for 2022.
- (3) a motion to suspend term limits for Officers as defined in Article VII of our Constitution for 2022.
- (4) a motion to establish an Interim Leadership Team consisting of five Congregation members plus the Church Moderator, Clerk, Pastor and Administrative Assistant who will assume all responsibilities of Boards identified in Article VII of our Church Constitution for the 2022 calendar year.

All four motions were supported as one by Gayle Johnson with a second by Melissa Mattke and passed by voice vote.

The budget for 2022 was presented for approval with a projected increase of 3.8% to $233,114. We feel blessed by the members that committed during the Consecration service and the weeks around it to propose this budget. The budget was passed after a motion from Rob Harms and a second by Linda Eicher.

Brian Cowen made a motion to adjourn the meeting which was seconded by Laurel Bentz.

February 13th, 2022 Annual Congregational Meeting

Please save the date after our morning service to participate in the Annual meeting to close out the 2021 year. 2021 Board Chairs and staff will present reports for your review and approval. We look forward to seeing you there.

From the Reopening Committee

From the discussions of the appearance of the Omicron variant, the committee has decided it is best for the general health of the congregation that we do not have Coffee Fellowship after Sunday services.

We are waiting to gather more information and we will reassess at the end of January.

Tom Rusch and committee

Honorable Mention:

On Christmas Eve, with the extreme contagion of the new Omicron Variant and our concern for our congregants, we offered an added Live Zoom stream for folks to decide which was best for them.

Our efforts to provide a safe and meaningful Christmas Eve service included a ZOOM Live Stream that evening. Thank you to Kate Driessen for the ZOOM set up and facilitating access for those viewing from home.

At 7 p.m. as the church bell rang, they joined us from home. They heard the music, saw Pastor Stephen deliver his message and shared communion with bread and juice of their own.

As we switched our “electric” candles on, they lit their own candles and as Juanita lead us in “Stille Nacht,” they sang right along with us.

The Daily Devotional is a spiritually deep and refreshing well, to which thousands of readers are drawn each day.

As we have been sharing in-person worship, it continues to be recommended to have congregational singing only when masked and appropriate distance between family groups (The Hymn Society recommendations). We need to remember that while many may be vaccinated in our congregation, there are those who are not yet eligible to receive vaccines, or cannot, for various reasons. Aerosols expelled by singing move outward farther than those of ordinary breathing or talking.

We are seeking your offering of musical gifts for our worship. We would like to continue the practice of sharing music in a safe way to enrich our worship. The plan includes a solo vocalist leading the hymns for the day at a safe distance, unmasked and with a microphone for clarity for the in-person congregation and the congregation attending on-line.

Would you be interested in leading the hymns during worship on a Sunday? Would you be interested in sharing a musical offering? I am looking for musicians to serve our church by sharing their musical gifts. The musical offering can be vocal or instrumental. Please contact me if you would be interested. Thank you!

Thank you to Jennie Ortega who led our singing on December 26th, The Watertown High School Carolers who visited us during their annual tour of churches, Bill Edington who added trumpet and Juanita Edington who added guitar for Christmas Eve, Tom Rusch who filled in for Susie at 15 minutes notice, and Susie Krueger who faithfully shared her musical gifts throughout the busy music month of December. I also want to thank the Heritage Military Music Foundation and First Brigade Band for offering videos of carols performed by a brass quintet to churches, which I used in several of our videos. Thank you all, for willingly sharing your gifts of time and talent.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 19TH - We had a wonderful turn out for performers and audience alike, despite the Packer game being moved directly opposite the recital! We had 63 in the audience.

Our performers were: Evan Chowanec, Kristin Chowanec, Bill Edington, Juanita Edington, Jesse Fremont, Charly Ladwig, Erin Lynch, Kevin Koehnke, Susie Krueger, Maggie Markus, Theresa Janke Oestreicher, Emily Ortega, Jennie Ortega, Jim Ortega, Tom Rusch, June Schroeder, and Eliza Zabel. Thank you to all who attended and those who performed.

Our "Listen Up" Bible Study continues....
Tuesdays at 9 a.m. via ZOOM

Acts 16–28 follows the footsteps of Paul and those who traveled and taught with him.

We see Paul teaching by the stream in Philippi and the emergence of Lydia and the church at her home. We see Paul starting a riot among the silversmiths in Ephesus. We hear his charge to future leaders of the church in Acts 20 and his encouragement to them to "not shrink."

All the while, the church spreads. As Acts draws to a close Paul returns to Jerusalem to face his opponents there, and then sails through choppy seas to the city of destiny, Rome.

This group meets at 9am on Tuesdays via a Zoom link.
A printed workbook is provided for everyone by contacting Laurel in the church office.
